

ANN-STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST.

The annual business meeting of members of the Church of Christ, Ann-street, was held in the Chapel. Mr. G. Cane in the chair. The secretary (Mr. Wendorf) was absent through illness, but sent in the secretary's report, which was read by Mr. Elvery. The report stated that a very satisfactory condition of affairs existed in all departments. The membership had been increased during the year by 44. A matter for great thankfulness was the healthy condition of the finances, both the amount contributed to local work, and the amounts for special contributions reaching a record, even the Sisters' Guild establishing a record year with their sale of work. The treasurer (Mr. Cottle) read the financial report, which disclosed that the total amount contributed to all sources by the members for the year was £887, as follows: To local work, £483; Home Missions, £115; F. Missions, £8; sale of work, £165; education and sundries, £113. Pastor Alcorn gave an encouraging report of his work in the city. Satisfactory reports were also read from the Young People's Endeavour Class, Choir, Sisters' Guild, Bible School, and Young Men's Sports Club. The election of officers resulted as follows:—Deacons, Messrs. Berlin, Clothier, Cottee, Bonehill, Elvery, Partridge, Potter, White, Taylor, and Wendorf; deaconesses, Sisters Elvery, Handy, Partridge, Irvine, Suchting, White, and Wendorf; secretary, Mr. W. A. C. Wendorf; assistant secretary, Mr. Elvery; treasurer, Mr. Cottle; envelope secretary, Mr. Elvery; auditor, Mr. W. Mills; delegates of conference, Messrs. Berlin, Potter, Partridge, Clothier, and S. Trudgian.
